Call to Order

The meeting was called to order by Tad Weiss at 7:15 PM.

Present: Tad Weiss (Acting Chair), Jennifer Milikowsky, Jon Albitz, Jeremy Durrin, Scott Stanton (remote)

Also Present: Douglas Finn, Town Coordinator

Assign note taker

Mr. Finn offered to take minutes.

Acknowledgement

Mr. Weiss thanked the board for their work on the committee, and in advance for their dedication to the work of the committee ahead. Mr. Weiss noted his appreciation for the committee's hard work, clarity, and commitment to see the work completed.

Review of Minutes

The minutes of October 8, 2025, were reviewed. Minor corrections were made by consensus.

After review, it was MOVED by Durrin, SECONDED by Holt

To approve the minutes as amended.

VOTED: 6, 0, 1. (7:10 PM)

Presentation of new finance planning workbook for FY27

The budget workbook for FY2027 was presented and reviewed in some detail. No action taken.

Update on projects that may affect FY27 budgeting (e.g. Solar)

There was some discussion about the impact of the completed Town Hall solar PV array on the budget, and the soon-to-be-completed Solar PV Array at the Public Safety complex on electric costs for the Fire Dept, Highway Dept and Transfer Station.

Mr. Finn noted that the Highway Department had successfully found a grader that met the town's needs, and inside the budget. The Finance Committee expressed their appreciation to Mr. Jablonski for a job well done.

Calendar for FY27 budget planning

The Committee reviewed the 'milestones' calendar for the FY2026 fiscal year.

The board agreed that regular meetings would be held on Wednesday evenings as in previous years.

Preliminary discussion on FY27 ROUGH budget

The board reviewed a very rough FY2027 budget mockup. Extensive deliberation, no votes taken.

Discussion and Potential vote to make a recommendation to the Selectboard in regard to Group Health Insurance

The board discussed the potential of the Town to consider changes to its health care plans. Ms. Milikowsky presented information, insight into the thinking of the Selectboard, and asked the committee if they would offer a recommendation.

After some deliberation, it was MOVED by Stanton, SECONDED by Holt

That the Finance Committee acknowledges the extreme burden that health insurance places on the town finances and the fiscal impact in case of HCGIT insolvency; and recommends that the Selectboard proceeds with pursuing additional options that may provide financial benefit and stability.

VOTED: 7, 0, 0. (9:24 PM)

Next Meeting

No meeting was scheduled. Mr. Weiss stated that he would inform members of an upcoming meeting.

Adjourn

It was MOVED by Durrin, SECONDED by Stanton

To adjourn.
