Friends Report

The Friends did not meet last month.

Old Business

Discussed the override vote. It is not currently possible to discuss or evaluate further changes to the Library budget until the town budget is discussed and finalized at the Town Meeting, June 22, 2026.

Discussed work with Outdoor Access Committee. They have previously applied for two grants we did not receive. Given the current financial situation, Meaghan is proposing not pursuing further projects, given that any addition would require maintenance. The Board concurred with this suggestion. Meaghan will bring this up with the Outdoor Access Committee. The railing for the stairs is in process; the Friends have already agreed to pay for this.

Meaghan proposed that a project that would not require further maintenance would be preserving local history materials, with which the board concurred.

Meaghan is working on developing a document to clarify which building maintenance elements are overseen by the library vs the town. Septic will not need to be pumped for 2-3 more years. Painting the interior walls is something Meaghan will discuss with Phil Dowling, who may already have the paint. A crack in the siding of the Judd house is on the list of things to be addressed.

New Business

Reorganization of the Board.

Anne Marie O'Reilly agrees to continue as Chair, with Jackie Brodeur as Vice Chair. is available Angela Griefen will be Treasurer.

Alison Thirkield will continue as Secretary

The Trustees have previously been working on creating a Social Media Policy, which was recently presented. However, given that the town is now also working on their own social media policy, it was agreed to pause the Library's policy process until the Town's is complete. They are considering some elements in addition to the proposed Library policy. When the Town policy is complete, the Trustees may need to discuss any divergences with the town. We will await the town's final policy and a discussion with them, as needed, before finalizing our policy.

Angel Griefen proposed the above pause; Jackie Brodeur seconded. Approved unanimously.

Any other Business to come before the Trustees, not anticipated at the time of posting of this agenda

Meeting Adjourned: 7:05 pm.

Alison Thirkield moved to adjourn; Angela Grieffen seconded. Approved unanimously.

Next Meeting: July 14, 2026 6PM.
