Motion to accept minutes of Finance meeting of April 7, 2015, voted to approve 7-0 with the modification to Library from $90,396 to $89,832

Richard Tracy approached Finance Committee and stated that it was possible that the Historical Commission would contribute $1,000 toward Town Clerk book preservation. Funds to come from Howard Clapp Historical fund. Discussion centered on how many books could or should be preserved.

Ellice commented on emails sent from Celeste regarding Prop 2 ½ and budgets. She stated how informative the emails were.

Budget is over the levy limit by $11,030

Dog refund was lowered from $247 to $212, voted to approve 7-0

No other changes were made to the overall budget.

Committee assigned members to speak on different parts of the budget at Town Meeting if necessary.

- Counsel Fees, Board of Selectmen/Mary Cleary
- Audit, Auditor Joe Boudry
- Highway, David Blakesley and/or Joe Pipczynski
- Vocational Schools, Anniko
- Westhampton Elementary School, Jackie
- Fire, Chief Norris
- OPED (retirement funding) Celeste
- Town Hall painting, Joe Pipczynski
- Revenues, Ellice
- Override, Ellice

Selectman Phil Dowling suggested using Vocational Schools Tuition as the reason for the requested override. Finance committee decided not to use Vocational School Tuitions as the reason but to use the Fire Department requests instead.
